David Chapman, 1927-83: The Tasmanian Years
Diane Dunbar Curator QVMAG Launceston Tasmania
Queen Victoria Museum and Art Gallery,
1987.
First Edition.

26cm x 21cm. 60 pages, colour illustrations. Illustrated wrappers.

A lovely exhibition catalogue of works by the Australian painter, David Chapman.

This selected group of works "The Tasmanian Years", was curated for the exhibition and lists the final years of David's work whilst residing at Palmerston Meadows, Cressy in Tasmania.

A short essay by Diane Dunbar helps to illustrate and outline the purpose of the exhibition and as a curator provide a synopsis of the vision of David Chapman.

The catalogue contains some colour and black and white reproductions, and a complete chronological list of Chapman's paintings for the period.
